Marketing Plan and Partnership Opportunities 2002

A marketing directory of Newfoundland and Labrador Tourism and how you can participate.

NEWFOUNDLAND
& LABRADOR
CANADA

www.gov.nf.ca/tourism/

Dear Tourism Partner:

The Department of Tourism, Culture and Recreation (TCR) is pleased to introduce the Marketing Plan and Partnership Opportunities 2002, a directory of marketing programs and services available to you, the tourism industry. This directory was established with industry consultation and is designed to build the province's tourism industry and to grow your business.

Within these pages you will find an overview of our 2002 Marketing Plan. This comprehensive plan builds upon our past successes. We have experienced a 37% increase in non-resident visitation from 1996 to 2000 and preliminary statistics for 2001 suggest a season comparable to 2000. Our success is also measured by the impact the tourism industry has made to our economy. Tourism directly employs 15,000 Newfoundlanders and Labradorians, 10,000 indirectly. Last year, non-resident tourism revenues were $287 million, while 1999 resident revenues were approximately $332 million (most current data available). The plan will continue to promote Newfoundland and Labrador as the "Destination of Choice."

The purpose of the Marketing Plan and Partnership Opportunities 2002, is to make it easier for you to access and take part in marketing programs that are best suited to your business and target markets, many at reduced TCR rates. For example, through our Ontario Newspaper campaign, you can purchase a 1/8 page ad for one-third the regular advertising cost. We encourage you to review all of the programs. Contact names, deadlines and costs are listed for each program. Please note that some programs have limited space, are subject to booking deadlines, sell out early and are subject to change.

Partnership is fundamental to our success; partnerships to make informed decisions and partnerships to bring more resources to the table. Together, industry and government must continue to embrace a marketing strategy that thrives on the spirit of cooperation and entrepreneurship. So let's work together by pooling our resources to grow the tourism industry for the mutual benefit of individual businesses and all Newfoundlanders and Labradorians.

Sincerely,
Newfoundland and Labrador Tourism

Market Plan Overview

TOURISM PHILOSOPHY

For Newfoundland and Labrador, there's no such thing as an accidental tourist. It takes deliberate action to visit here... compelled by curiosity and the promise of what is different.

MARKETING OBJECTIVES

- Increase non-resident visitation and expenditures from our core markets.
- Increase travel in the shoulder seasons of early summer and early fall.
- Increase resident travel and expenditures.

MARKETING STRATEGY

- Focus resources on markets and products with the greatest return on investment.
- Position the province as the "Destination of Choice."
- Build consumer and trade awareness and increase visitation to Newfoundland and Labrador.
- Build on our existing brand icons.
- Integrate marketing activities with a consistent look and message.

BRAND POSITIONING

An arresting and compelling destination because of the blend of our unique offerings – exclusive products, dramatic seascape and landscape, significant history, distinct culture and genuine people.

TARGET MARKETS

In Province

Residents of Newfoundland and Labrador represent the largest and most important market segment for tourism in Newfoundland and Labrador. They represent 84% of the visitors to Newfoundland and Labrador and contribute 56% of the revenue.

Newfoundlanders and Labradorians have a low awareness of the diverse tourism offerings in this province, yet, it is efficient and inexpensive to reach, inform and persuade them to travel throughout their own province. The spin-off benefits from pride and satisfaction are also critical, leading to positive word-of-mouth influence from these tourism ambassadors.

Demographic

Primary	Secondary
• Adults 25-45	• Adults 50+
• With or without children	• Empty nesters
• Average income and education	• Active lifestyles/highly mobile
• Own at least one automobile

Out of Province

Sightseeing/Touring

The Sightseeing/Touring product is based on our diverse blend of significant cultural heritage, soft adventure and nature viewing experiences. The majority (64%) of vacation/pleasure visitors to Newfoundland and Labrador come for sightseeing/touring purposes and contribute 61% of the total vacation and pleasure tourism expenditures to the province.

Domestic travel within Canada remains the backbone of the Canadian tourism industry. Of all the trips within Canada, 80% are taken by Canadians. The major market for the Sightseeing/Touring market is the Canadian domestic market representing 82% of our non-resident visitors. Ontario represents 46% of that Canadian market. The Maritimes is our next largest with 31% of total visitors coming from Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick. Western Canada, mainly Alberta and British Columbia, represents 17%, and Quebec represents 6% of our total visitation in 2000.

The United States is the key international market for Canada. It also provides great potential for Newfoundland and Labrador, as these travellers are demanding adventure and cultural/heritage experiences in new destinations. At present 13% of our visitors come from the United States.

The United States is a significant market and the competition for market share in the northeast United States is enormous. To maximise our market share, Newfoundland and Labrador works co-operatively with the Atlantic Canada Tourism Partnership and the Canadian Tourism Commission.

Pleasure travel to Newfoundland and Labrador from overseas represents 5% of total non-resident visitation to the province. Increased air access from UK and Germany, and Japan to Toronto, has resulted in a 15% increase in direct international flight arrivals in St. John's during 2000. These are developmental markets for Newfoundland and Labrador, and as such Newfoundland and Labrador will be marketed in partnership with our Atlantic Canada partners and the Canadian Tourism Commission.

Demographic

Primary

- Adults 25-35, heavily skewed 45-64
- High disposable income
- University educated
- White collar, urban residents
- Empty nesters, no children living at home
- Like to participate in nature, culture and enrichment experiences
- Nature oriented, adventuresome

Geographic

	• Western Canada	• Japan

Visiting Friends and Relatives

The VFR (Visiting Friends and Relatives) market is important for Newfoundland and Labrador. It represents 38% of total visitors to the province and 32% of the revenue. Though their expenditures are smaller than other visitors, the VFR market stays on average 13 nights and re-visits to the province on average every 5.2 years.

Demographic

- Expatriate
- Roots in Newfoundland & Labrador
- Former residents not born here
- Friends and/or family living here

Geographic

- Canada – Maritimes, Ontario, Alberta
- United States – Northeast

Niche

Our niche markets continue to provide opportunity for growth to Newfoundland and Labrador. These markets are medium-to-high volume and medium-to-high yield. In these markets, Newfoundland and Labrador has the unique, unusual, distinctive and exclusive product offerings that these markets are demanding.

- Outdoor Adventure and Nature Viewing
- Hunting and Fishing
- Meetings, Conventions and Incentive Travel

Outdoor Adventure and Nature Viewing

Newfoundland and Labrador has the fortunate position to have the unique, exclusive product offerings desired by this market – the world's largest concentration of humpback whales, most southerly point for iceberg viewing, 5 ecological reserves of global significance, largest Atlantic Puffin sanctuary in North America, the world's largest caribou herd, 17,500 km of coastline.

In Canada, 2.4 million people travel to experience outdoor adventure and nature while in the United States this market represents 30 million people. Currently, over half of our sightseeing/touring visitors participate in outdoor adventure and nature viewing activities while vacationing in Newfoundland and Labrador. This market is a high volume, mid-to-high yield and well travelled group.

Demographic

Primary

- Adults 25-44, skewed 45-65
- Couples
- University educated
- High disposable income
- Travel outside home province/state
- Active, nature oriented, adventuresome, travel "off the beaten track"
- Like to participate in nature learning trips

Hunting and Fishing

Newfoundland and Labrador offers hunters and sport fish enthusiasts one of the most amazing and rewarding experiences in the world. Our big game population densities are higher than anywhere in North America and as high as anywhere in the world, and our game fishing are the most prized in the world. The hunting and fishing market contributes significantly to our tourism revenues. Some 4,500+ big game licences along with over 1,630 salmon and 2,300 trout licenses were sold to non-residents in 2000.

In 1998, 5.5 million Canadian anglers took 108,000 fishing trips over 1,600 km. In the United States, 35.6 million people participate in sports fishing. The 1996 Product/Market Match study identifies that 2% of the market stay at high end lodges, while the remainder use local accommodations and B&Bs. Newfoundland and Labrador also has the opportunity to attract the high volume of this market which chooses not to fish from a lodge based operator.

In 1996, 1.2 million or 5.1% of Canadians hunted. Of these, 1 million hunted as a main activity, and nearly three quarters of that million hunted big game. In the United States this market is even larger. In 1996, 14 million Americans hunted. Of these, 11.3 million people hunted big game.

Demographic

Primary

- Adults 25-34, heavily skewed 45-65
- Predominantly male
- University educated
- High disposable income
- Travel outside home province/state for hunting or fishing
- Nature oriented, adventuresome

Meetings, Conventions and Incentive Travel

Recent estimates put Canada's annual share of the North American MC&IT industry at approximately $6.5 billion, equivalent to about 10% to 15% of the total industry. Newfoundland and Labrador statistics place the economic impact of the Meetings and Conventions market at approximately $26 million annually. In addition pre- and post-conference stays have a significant impact on the general sightseeing/touring market.

The outlook for 2002 is very strong according to business booked to date in St. John's and Corner Brook. The completion of the Mile One Stadium and St. John's Convention Centre will assist this growing market as those conventions which could not previously be accommodated will be able to hold their conventions in St. John's and thus impact the provincial tourism sector.

The Incentive Travel market is becoming a major focus of the MC&IT marketing effort. In the past three years, there has been an increase in awareness and interest in Newfoundland and Labrador as an incentive destination. While this market is in the developmental stage, there are export-ready products and services available. As a result there is an increase in Newfoundland and Labrador incentive travel programming in the national and international incentive travel houses and corporate planners.

Demographic

Marketing Programs and Opportunities

Our marketing programs are available for you to participate. This section is organized by programs available within all markets and programs available within each niche market. Partnership opportunities include advertising, trade shows, marketplaces, public and media relations.

ALL MARKETS

Marketing Partnership

Marketing Partnerships is a new position within Newfoundland and Labrador Tourism whose mandate is to provide on-going communication to tourism operators and partners with respect to the Tourism Marketing Plan and Partnership Opportunities. Marketing Partnerships is designed to make it easier for you to access and take part in the Marketing Programs available. To help you plan and grow your business, assistance is available in the identification and development of marketing approaches that complement the Newfoundland and Labrador Tourism Marketing Plan.

In addition, we provide the industry with marketing intelligence, through the use of presentations, road shows and the Marketing Plan and Partnership Opportunities 2002 guide. Presentations may also be delivered upon request to groups interested in marketing program development and partnerships.

LITERATURE DISTRIBUTION

Description: Distribution of tourism brochures to provincial and regional Visitor Information Centres.

Distribution Date: May 2002 and June 2002

Deadline for Materials: April 30, 2002 and May 31, 2002

Cost: Free. Operators are responsible for delivery to the Distribution Centre.

For information, contact Nick Dawe 709-729-5228 ndawe@mail.gov.nf.ca

STAFF TRAINING

Description: The travel counsellors in the provincial Visitor Information Centre (VIC) throughout the province are often the first personal contact for many visitors. In 2001, counsellors spoke with over 97,000 visitors. Each spring, a training program is conducted to enhance new travel counsellors' knowledge of the province's attractions, services and products. Experiencing your product first hand through tours or presentations, greatly increases the counsellors' knowledge of your product, thereby enabling them to transfer this information to our visitors. To promote your product or region to these crucial staff, there are opportunities to participate in regional tours and presentations.

Cost: Free to tourism operators and/or in-kind contribution of product and service.

Tourism Information and Reservations System

Newfoundland and Labrador Tourism, in partnership with TELELINK – The Call Centre Inc., operates the toll free 1-800-563-NFLD information and reservation service. This service is used by vacationers to obtain information, travel counselling assistance and reservation bookings before leaving their residence and while in the province.

INFORMATION

Description: The information provided to the travel counsellors on the 1-800 line, the web site and the Visitor Information Centres (VICs) is supplied through the Tourism Destination Management System (TDMS) database. Operators can update their information at anytime so that it remains current.

Deadline for Information: May 31, 2002 for 2003 Travel Guide and updates at anytime.

Cost: Free to tourism operators and visitors

For information contact Jim Barrett 709-729-2985 jbarrett@mail.gov.nf.ca

RESERVATIONS

Description: The reservation service is operated by TELELINK – The Call Centre Inc. Over 5,500 reservations were booked as of August 31, 2001 representing a 25% increase in reservations sales over 2000 by visitors through the provincial information and reservation system. Operators can update their information at anytime so that it remains current.

Cost: Tourism operators are charged a listing fee and commission for reservations booked. For Hospitality Newfoundland and Labrador members, the annual listing fee is waived and operators pay only a commission for service when revenue is generated through actual booking.

Educational Tours

Newfoundland and Labrador Tourism supports its marketing campaign by conducting Travel Media and Travel Trade educational tours, also called familiarization (FAM) tours. During these site inspections and fact-finding missions, media and travel trade professionals experience Newfoundland and Labrador first hand. Accommodations, food and beverage operations, transportation, attractions and Destination Marketing Organizations (DMOs) can potentially benefit through increased sales by sponsoring and partnering to host these industry professionals. Through these educational tours, the province and industry capitalize on opportunities and create efficiencies that will grow our tourism industry.

TRAVEL MEDIA PRESS TRIPS

Description: Industry can host pre-qualified travel TV, radio, magazine and newspaper journalists specific to their market. Editorial value from this program is four times that of paid advertising. In 2000, worldwide unpaid media coverage for Newfoundland and Labrador was valued at approximately $35 million.

Timing: Year round

Cost: In-kind contribution of your product or service.

HUNTING AND FISHING MARKET

Advertising

Following the success of past years, a partnership opportunity for hunting outfitters to advertise in a major United States hunting publication has been negotiated for 2002. In addition, given the success of the hunting co-op, the TCR has secured a similar opportunity for the fly fishing market. These special "Spotlights on Newfoundland and Labrador" will consist of four page colour editorial sections based on the experiences of writers who have visited the province. Each spotlight will be supported by 1/6 page advertisements from participating outfitters.

American Hunter

Description: American Hunter is the official journal of the National Rifle Association (NRA), and is distributed to more than 1.5 million NRA members monthly. This publication provides Newfoundland and Labrador outfitters an opportunity to reach Newfoundland and Labrador's key outdoor market. This year, after an extensive evaluation of several publications, American Hunter was chosen as the most beneficial vehicle for the market.

Distribution Date: March 2002

Deadlines: Booking Deadline Material Deadline
December 1, 2001 December 1, 2001

Cost: $650.00 US for a 1/6 page ad.

Fly Fish America

Description: Fly Fish America is distributed to over 145,000 fly fish enthusiasts throughout the United States. This publication will provide Newfoundland and Labrador fly fish outfitters an opportunity to reach key members of their market as part of a high impact piece highlighting the fly fish experience in this province.

Distribution Date: February 2002

Deadlines: Booking Deadline Material Deadline
January 3, 2002 January 3, 2002

Cost: $650.00 US for a 1/6 page ad.

IN PROVINCE RESIDENT PROGRAM

Once again this year, the province will initiate an in-province resident advertising program. The strategies for the in-province resident campaign are outlined below:

- Increase resident in-province travel and expenditures by motivating residents to vacation in-province versus out-of-province.
- Increase frequency of travel by motivating residents to take additional and more frequent trips throughout the year.
- Lengthen the stay by increasing awareness of and interest in very specific things to do, places to go and sights to see.

- Increase money spent by promoting value of tourism offerings through packaging.

As of press time the details of the 2002 in-province resident program have not been confirmed. Industry partners will be informed as the details are finalized.
